

This is a sample of what a completed page would look like. Students create a page for the letter they were assigned and the teacher takes a picture of them holding the object. The picture is glued into the class book and the student completes the sentences on the page. Students can then design borders for the page just as the illustrator did in Chica Chica Boom Boom.

Ww

Chicka Chicka Boom Boom!
Mrs. Gold brought a wizard to our classroom.