

Independent Clauses and Equal Adjectives

NAME _____

PERIOD _____

Add commas between clauses where appropriate.

1. Stan wore a stunning tiara and he displayed an equally fascinating pair of earrings.
2. The vicious wolf ate hungrily but wouldn't touch the turnip soup.
3. He never bothered me again but it's probably because I moved away.
4. I've got multiple-personalities and so do I.
5. Even though it's going to be hot today I still have to wear a tie.
6. Because you love sweets I bought you this sugar cane to gnaw on.
7. Boy is he strange and he's a little crazy, too!
8. My green tomatoes are ripening nicely but the cucumbers have a bad attitude.
9. Someday I'm going to buy a duck and I'm not going to share with anybody.
10. Someone stepped on her toes and she's not at all happy about that.

Add commas between equal adjectives.

11. The goose had a lovely feathery bath towel.
 12. How come no one ever wants to try my delicious wonderful smelling goat pizza?
 13. My student informed me that the ignorant smelly pigeon craved death.
 14. The maligned insipid pig went blind with rage when I offered her a BLT.
 15. (Write your own sentence below that has two equal adjectives modifying a noun.)
-

Answer Key:

1. Stan wore a stunning tiara, and he displayed an equally fascinating pair of earrings.
2. The vicious wolf ate hungrily, but wouldn't touch the turnip soup.
3. He never bothered me again, but it's probably because I moved away.
4. I've got multiple-personalities, and so do I.
5. Even though it's going to be hot today, I still have to wear a tie.
6. Because you love sweets, I bought you this sugar cane to gnaw on.
7. Boy is he strange, and he's a little crazy, too!
8. My green tomatoes are ripening nicely, but the cucumbers have a bad attitude.
9. Someday I'm going to buy a duck, and I'm not going to share with anybody.
10. Someone stepped on her toes, and she's not at all happy about that.
11. The goose had a lovely, feathery bath towel.
12. How come no one ever wants to try my delicious, wonderful smelling goat pizza?
13. My student informed me that the ignorant, smelly pigeon craved death.
14. The maligned, insipid pig went blind with rage when I offered her a BLT.
15. (Write your own sentence that has two equal adjectives modifying a noun.)

SAMPLE-DO NOT COPY