

31. In many sports, _____ has been tarnished since news that players attempt to utilize substances, sometimes steroids, in order to strengthen themselves physically.

- (A). occlusion
- (B). perspicuity
- (C). sacrosanctity
- (D). clandestiness
- (E). duplicity

The correct answer is C. You can tell based off of this that it is the steroids that tarnish the players' image. Therefore, the integrity of the game seems to have been shattered. Only "sacrosanctity," inviolable, correctly refers to this.

34. When Johnson _____ the discussions, he surprised everyone, because he was known for to _____ them.

- (A). terminated...augment
- (B). initiated...contain
- (C). facilitated...prolong
- (D). adjoined...perturbed by
- (E). loathed...abominated

The correct response is A. This is a difficult question because we don't know if which word, or type of word, fits into both categories. While we don't know this, it doesn't mean we can't answer the question. We know that the words must be opposites because of the "surprise." Only A has words which imply oppositeness.
