Day by Day

In April

Day By Day is a unique opportunity for young students to daily review their skills in reading, writing, math, language, vocabulary and phonics. It is completely child directed with a familiar structure that encourages creativity and individuality. There are 20 lessons for April that incorporate Science and Social Studies ideas for the month. There is no adult preparation required but the topics could spark some lively conversations.

Some ideas for further study:

Science Topics: Animals – Rabbits, Bunnies, Chicks

Signs of Spring and How the Earth changes

Eggs – Hatching Eggs, the Structure of Eggs

What Hatches From Eggs

Chickens

The Water Cycle

Ecology – Reduce, Recycle, Reuse

Social Studies: Earth Day – April 22

Easter Traditions

Natural Resources

Baseball - An American Tradition
