

This Class Play, based on Unit 17, is much shorter than writer, Sue Russell's normal scripts. It carries a simple message –that of remembering the sacrifices made for us by others. Based on a class of 30, it comes with usual seating plan.

Remembrance Day Assembly Play

Take time to remember the sacrifices made by others

SAMPLE TEXT

Remembrance Day Assembly

Child 10: Life continues. But we will never forget the millions of lives lost in war.

Child 11: All around the country, there are war memorials with the names of those who died in action.

Child 12: In London, every year on Remembrance Day, there is a special march to the Cenotaph.

Child 13: This means Empty Tomb, and is in memory of all those who went missing without proper graves – the unknown soldiers.

Child 14: Wreaths are laid and special services held all over the country.

Child 15: Both World Wars were fought between ourselves and Germany, but many other countries were involved.

TEACHING 'COVERAGE'

13. Unit 17 Remembrance Day Assembly

- (i) What and Who we're remembering
- (ii) How we remember them
- (iii) In Flanders Fields poem
- (iv) Horror of war
- (v) Prayer

MUSIC

Jerusalem